

Gerald W. McElvy

*Deputy Manager, Public Affairs, ExxonMobil Corporation
President, ExxonMobil Foundation*

Gerald W. McElvy is the Deputy Manager, Public Affairs, for ExxonMobil Corporation, and President of the ExxonMobil Foundation.

Mr. McElvy is a native of Ft. Worth, Texas. He earned a BBA degree with honors in 1975 from Bauer College at the University of Houston and completed an MBA in Finance from UCLA in 1977. He is married to Sylvia McElvy and they have two sons, Brandon and Bryan.

Mr. McElvy has been employed by ExxonMobil for more than 30 years and has extensive financial management experience.

In recent years, he has served as European Downstream Planning Manager for Exxon Company International, Finance Director for Esso Australia, Controller of Exxon Company, U.S.A., and General Auditor of ExxonMobil Corporation.

Mr. McElvy is a Board member of the Texas Business and Education Coalition, and serves on the Dean's Executive Board at the C. T. Bauer College of Business at the University of Houston. He is also a Board Member of Reasoning Mind, an innovative, web-based middle school math education program.

He has previously served as a board member of several community service organizations including the Kappa Alpha Psi Foundation, the United Way of Texas Gulf Coast, and Odyssey House, an adolescent chemical dependency recovery program in Houston. He has also served as National Treasurer of the National Black MBA Association. He is a member of Financial Executives International, the Executive Leadership Council, and Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity.